To the Parties:

For the Parties attending tomorrow's hearing live and in person, I thought I would pass on pictures of our hearing room set-up. As you can see, the room will be divided up so as to seat ORS on one side and Duke on the other. There will be a table at the front for the two-person panels. We do have one table next to the side door that will seat two Duke attorneys and one ORS attorney. I would note that the attorney table is in close proximity to the ORS part of the gallery. We have some table microphones for the panel and the attorneys and some lavalier mikes also for attorneys. For oral arguments of the motions and for presenting the live witnesses, I would suggest that you come to the podium near the attorney's table to make your presentations.

Hopefully one day, we will be able to once again have full live hearings without the need for social distancing, but, for the present we must still take precautions. I would also note that the hearing room will be sprayed with a disinfectant several times during the day, during times when the room is not occupied.

Thank you for your consideration and cooperation in these matters.

Regards,

David Butler
